

Name _____

Oral History Pre-Interview Form Due _____

Guiding Question:

How do your family's experiences and perspectives fit into the historical record?

Please complete this form for at least two potential interview candidates. Handwrite your responses and return both forms no later than _____.

Name of Person Interviewed: _____

Relationship: _____ Maternal or Paternal? _____

Age: _____

Tell your grandparent: "This year in history class we are discovering our personal and family connections to history. I am doing a preliminary interview to get some ideas for subjects about which I might want to learn more."

Tell me about a significant event, experience or discovery from when you were young.

Follow up question -

Tell me about an event that changed your life path.

Follow up question -

What is the closest you have come to a brush with history or fame?

Follow up question -

Tell me about a family story that was passed down to you that you would like to share.

Follow up question -

What other events or moments from history were important to you that you would like to tell me more about?